IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT MANAGING YOUR PHYSICIAN QUALITY REPORTING INITIATIVE (PQRI) EMAIL UPDATES

Previously, Physician Quality Reporting Initiative (PQRI) messages regarding recent news, policy changes, and updates were disseminated through all Medicare provider mailing lists. However, effective immediately, PQRI messages will only be sent out through the Medicare physician mailing list.

Therefore, if you are not currently subscribed to the Medicare physician mailing list, you can sign up by visiting https://list.nih.gov/cgi-bin/show_list_archives on the Internet. Once on the page, scroll down to the Physicians-L link, and click on it. This will bring you to a page titled “Archives of PHYSICIANS-L@List.NIH.Gov”; once on that page, click on the link that reads “join or leave the list, update options (second bullet). This screen will allow you to join the PHYSICIANS-L mailing list.

For More Information

New information is continually added to the most reliable source of information about PQRI on the CMS website: <http://www.cms.hhs.gov/PQRI>. Here you will find the latest information on the 2009 PQRI, new and revised Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ), updates on issues related to both the 2007 and 2008 PQRI, new educational products, and access to the latest information you need to successfully participate in PQRI.
